

Figure 1. (Overview of our model-diagnostic framework using MD tree). This framework is designed to analyze and diagnose NNs where the training configuration is unknown. By examining the loss landscape structure of a given trained model, MD tree can identify potential failure sources of suboptimal performance.